

YOU INTENDED TO HARM ME

By Rev. Martin A. Shrout

March 2005, Oceanside, CA

Based on Genesis 50:20 and Proverbs 3:11-12

INTRO: G Em C D

VERSE #1

G
Joseph's brothers wanted to kill him,
Em
They sold him as a slave instead.
C
Jealousy had enraged them,
D
They told his father he was dead.
G
Potiphar's wife how she lied,
Em
She told her husband Joe done her wrong.
C
Falsely accusing how she cried,
D
Joseph imprisoned while so young.

CHORUS

G Em
You intended to harm me,
C D Em
But God intended it for good.
G Em
You intended to harm me,
C D Em
But God intended it for good.
C D
To accomplish what is now being done,
C D
The saving of many lives.
C D
To accomplish what is now being done,
C D

The saving of many lives.

C D Em

The saving of many lives.

VERSE #2

G
Joseph learned to be faithful,
Em
While living a life that's not his plan.
C
Explaining dreams gave him freedom,
D
Became Pharaoh's right-hand man.
G
Many years have passed now,
Em
Through trials God had blessed this man.
C
His brothers begging as they bow,
D
A famine gripped all the land.

CHORUS

BRIDGE¹

C Am
My son, do not despise the Lord's discipline,
F G
And do not resent his rebuke,
C Am
Because the Lord disciplines those he loves
F G
As a father the son he delights in.

¹ Proverbs 3:11-12 NIV
